Online Fashion Styling Course

Milan Fashion Design Academy by Milan Fashion Campus is pleased to announce that enrollment is open for its latest Online Fashion Styling Course.

Summary: The program is divided in four sections, each one aims to give students different knowledge and skills in order to create a completed final result useful to start a career into the fashion field.

A fashion stylist is an expert in image and style, always aware of trends. Good fashion stylists know how to accentuate the strengths of people they dress, choosing the right outfit to flatter someone, in a way that is appropriate for each event and situation. Fashion styling requires extensive knowledge of the fashion industry and a particular attention to research new trends.

How it works:

The course is divided into 4 modules. When you download the first module you will take an appointment with the teacher to get the online photoshop lesson. After that you will be able to work on your own way. When all the exercises will be complete you will send them to the teacher and taking an appointment, you will correct them with her. After each module you can buy the following one. At the end of the last module (D) you will have the possibility to do the final tests, the overview for all the exercises done and gain the final certificate.

Module A includes an introduction with information about famous designers, fashion icons, important photographers, fabrics and a glossary with the names of items and accessories. Furthermore this first section gives students theoretical notions about how to determine different body and face shapes, personal colors and dress up according the situation and the trends.

Module B is about taking in consideration different ages, more precise, learn how to adapt a single trend to suit fashionistas of all ages, proving that fashion is truly for everyone. Not only ages, but also different mood; another exercise to test if the student is able to stylize a look following some style mood.

Module C follows a mostly personal way, teaching how to create great looks with a certain number of items and depending of the client's lifestyle. Another important thing that a stylist should take in consideration is the budget, that's why this section includes an exercise which learn how to copy a star look with an affordable price.

Module D, the last one, provides more completed exercises asking the student to pretend to be an editorial stylist and fix everything for a photo shoot or be able to create trendy and perfect individual outfits choosing just key items.

All of this exercises and notions aim to provide a professional knowledge to students, helping them to increase skills and abilities to find their place in the fashion field.
